Class History

1968 — In the fall of 1968, our class entered the ninth grade amid scores of promises. We had a new principal, Mr. Noyes and were caught up in a national election. Although our minds were young, we were still able to recognize some of the problems our country was facing, the Vietnam conflict and pollution of our air and water being the biggest.

The nation had been shocked earlier in the year when two prominent statesmen, Martin Luther King, Jr. and Robert F. Kennedy were assassinated. Racial violence had erupted in the cities during the summer and student unrest was prevalent on the college campuses.

In this vein, Richard M. Nixon, with Spiro Agnew as Vice-President, was elected President on promises to end the Vietnam conflict and fight pollution. Hubert Humphrey, the Democratic candidate and George Wallace, a third party candidate were both defeated.

The year ended though, with a former promise being fulfilled. Apollo 8, launched from Cape Kennedy, circled the Moon on Christmas day and returned safely three days later.

1969 — While the sophomore class was tucked away on the Cape conducting car washes, violence became a way of life for many people in the world.

Nigerian troops attacked and starved the tiny break away state of Biafra. Riots and fierce gun battles dramatized the Irish Catholic minority's demands for equality in Protestant Northern Ireland. While Nixon began reducing troop levels in Vietnam, charges were leveled at the Army of a massacre at My Lai, Vietnam. Consequently, Lt. William Calley was tried and court-martialed.

Closer to home, Senator Edward Kennedy drove his car off Chappaquidick Bridge on Martha's Vineyard killing Mary Jo Kopechne.

On the bright side, for the first time in history, the United States landed two men on the moon in July. And one of the largest and best rock shows was held on a farm near Woodstock, New York, with such guests as Jimi Hendricks, The Who, Jefferson Airplane, Sly and the Family Stone, and Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young.

1970 — In 1970, we began our junior year with a newly instituted English program and ended it with a nostalgia dance. Meanwhile, US forces were invading Laos and Cambodia, in order that more US forces could withdraw safely. Demonstrations increased after the invasion of Cambodia, which resulted in four deaths caused by National Guardsmen on the Kent State Campus in Ohio. In Pakistan, one of man's worst natural disasters occurred. A giant tidal wave swept across the lowlands of East Pakistan, killing thousands. While they were starving, the juniors were boycotting the food from the cafeteria. (A truly ironic year.)

1972 — With our senior play, "Teahouse of the August Moon," a smashing success, and a money making Christmas tree sale behind us, the senior class of 1972 looks forward to take its place in adult society. The eighteen year olds now have the constitutional right to vote and we should all look forward to this privilege.

A new nation was born in the wake of the India-Pakistani war, formally East Pakistan, it is now called Bangladesh. While a violent earthquake from California's San Andrea's fault rocked buildings and wrecked highways killing many, thousands rocked to the sound of the rock opera, Jesus Christ Superstar.

Finally — in 1972 Richard Nixon became the first United States President to visit Red China in an era to become "Peace in our Time" while seated hostilities raged on "our" Earth.

Introduction now over. Kindly direct attention to rest of play.

"Oh . . . not good, Boss."

"She say . . . tell fat ole man to shut up so we can get started."

"Teach the innocent women of this village to be . . . NO!"

"Conclusion? Not Yet. Continuation Shortly."

"What was true at our beginning remains true.
Pain makes man think, Thought makes man wise.
Wisdom makes life endurable. Our play has ended.
May August Moon bring gentle sleep."

“What You Are Is God’s Gift to You, What You Make of Yourself Is Your Gift to God.”

“ . . . And it is well you should.

The hidden well-spring of your soul must needs rise and run murmuring to the sea;

And the treasure of your infinite depths
would be revealed to your eyes.

But let there be no scales to weigh your
unknown treasure;

And seek not the depths of your knowledge
with staff or sounding line.

For self is a sea boundless and measureless.

Say not, ‘I have found the truth,’ but rather,
‘I have found a truth.’

Say not, ‘I have found the path of the soul.’
Say rather, ‘I have met the soul walking upon my path.’

For the soul walks upon all paths.

The soul walks not upon a line, neither does it grow like a reed.

The soul unfolds itself, like a lotus of countless petals.”

THAT IS NO EARTHLY GOOD TO ANYONE
UNTIL IT IS GIVEN AWAY. SO IF IN YOUR
HURRY AND RUSH YOU MEET SOME ONE WHO IS TOO WEARY TO GIVE YOU A SMILE, LEAVE ONE OF YOURS, FOR NO ONE NEEDS A SMILE QUITE

. . . All Other Seasons, . . .

AS GIVE MUCH TO
THE NONE
ONE HAS WHO

. . . And Let Today . . .

. . . Embrace . . .

... The Past With Remembrance ...

“Mr. President”

. . . And the Future With Longing.”

Gibran

We may change
with the seasons,
But the seasons
will not change us.

When you part from your friend,
you grieve not;

For that which you love most in him

may be clearer
in his absense,

as the mountain
to the climber
is clearer

from the plain.
